

IX BOX

IX BOX is an accent piece from Bacabs Collection, where architectural outlines meet primitive features.

Elegant and soft shapes focus the attention on the pre-Columbian figures, while a lacquered Noce Canaletto frame gives firmness and resistance to the Piece.

The sinuosity of the Nubuck leather dresses the box in its entirety, offering softness to the touch and a modern look.

A Brass finish mesh bejewels the Top, which stands out for its elegance and sophistication: with its bold appearance, this soft metal completely wraps the element and gives an exceptional charge of dynamism.

The severity of the brutalist lines is instead represented by the wooden knob that dominates the structure: with its grain in evidence, a brown lacquered wood item emerges from the top with its natural beauty.
